The Bible from Within: Exploring Patterns in Scripture. Ever wonder why the Scriptures depict several prominent families experiencing infertility? Why were time periods and numbers of persons marked out in increments of 3, 7, 12 or 40? What’s with pointing out that some of the most renowned Biblical figures were NOT firstborn? Why were agricultural terms used in prophetic messages? These are some of the memorable images we have read about repeatedly in a number of Biblical passages. Our Sunday School series takes you inside these texts, highlighting many of the profound figures and motifs that were carefully woven into the Biblical narratives for great effect within a spiritual tapestry. Class will meet at both 10am and 11:15am in the Library.
