Coffee & Conversation January 14, 2018: Jonah, Part 2

A Thanksgiving Psalm embedded with a remarkable insight: The plaintive Thanksgiving Psalm in Jonah chapter 2 marks an abrupt turnaround in attitude from that of the prophet expressed in chapter 1. After a discussion on this song of Thanksgiving our class will review certain passages in the book of Psalms, retracing the path of Old Testament scholars who made an intriguing discovery: This Psalm of Jonah sheds light on how the biblical writers utilized scriptural imagery to reframe and inform their timely spiritual messages.

People: We are God's people and the sheep of God's pasture. Enter God's gates with thanksgiving, and the Lord's courts with praise.

Leader: Give thanks to the Lord and praise the Lord's holy name.

People: For the Lord is good. God's love is everlasting, and is faithful to all generations.

All: Let us worship God!

*Hymn # 305 "Come Sing, O Church in Joy!"

Prayer of Confession (unison)

O Holy One, we call to you and name you as eternal, ever-present, and boundless in love. Yet there are times, O God, when we fail to recognize you in the daily-ness of our lives. Sometimes shame clenches tightly around our hearts, and we hide our true feelings. Sometimes fear makes us small, and we miss the chance to speak from our strength. Sometimes doubt invades our hopefulness, and we degrade our own wisdom. Holy God, in the daily round from sunrise to sunset, remind us again of your holy presence hovering near us and in us. Free us from shame and self-doubt. Help us to see you in the moment-by-moment possibilities to live honestly, to act courageously, and to speak from our wisdom. . . .

Silence for Personal Confession

Assurance of God's Forgiveness

Leader: Hear the good news! The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, like you and me.

People: He bore our sins in his body on the cross, that we might be dead to sin and alive to all that is good.

All: In Christ and in Christ alone, we are forgiven.

*Congregational Response

Hymn # 610 "O for a Thousand Tongues to Sing" verses 4-5
